

A BIRDERS' GUIDE TO MISSOURI PUBLIC LANDS

MOUNT HULDA TOWERSITE

40 acres Benton Co. DeLorme 44, A-3

MDC owned; for information call 660-530-5500

Edge Wade edgewATmchsi.com Nov. 2010

Directions: From Sedalia, go 12 miles south on US 65, then east 11.5 miles on MO 52 to Rt. W. Go 6 miles south on Rt. W. From Lincoln, take Rt. H southeast to Edmonson, then go east on Rt. W. The site is on the east side of Rt. W.

When to Visit/Species to Expect: Spring and early summer. Nesting Pine Warblers, flycatchers, and tanagers can be expected.

Features of interest to birders: Now a radio tower site, the fire tower was donated to the Cimmarron National Grassland in western Kansas. The immediate vicinity of the tower has pines. Oak-hickory forest surrounds it.

Toilets: None

Camping: None

Hazards/Limitations: None noted

Nearby Birding Sites: Big Buffalo Creek CA, Lost Valley Fish Hatchery, Harry S Truman SP